DIVINE SERVICE 1, PAGE 151

The Service of Preparation

(Upon entering the nave, silence should be observed to allow all the opportunity to prayerfully prepare for the presence of the Lord and the reception of His gifts)

The Congregation Assembles in Silence

(There is no Prelude, Ringing of the Bells, or Opening Hymn during our Lenten Mid-week Divine Services. All stand at the direction of the pastor.)

The Confession and Absolution (p. 151)

The Service of the Word

The Psalm

Psalm 113

Praise the LORD! Praise, O servants | of the LORD,*
praise the name | of the LORD!

Blessed be the name | of the LORD*

from this time forth and forevermore!

From the rising of the sun to its | setting,*
the name of the LORD is | to be praised!

The LORD is high above all | nations,*
and his glory above the | heavens!

Who is like the | LORD our God,*
who is seated | on high,

who looks | far down*

on the heavens | and the earth?

He raises the poor | from the dust*
and lifts the needy from the | ash heap,

to make them sit with | princes,*
with the princes of his | people.

He gives the barren wom- | an a home,*

making her the joyous mother of children. | Praise the LORD!

The Kyrie (pp. 152-153)

The Salutation and Collect of the Day (p. 156)

Grant, we implore You, almighty God, that we, who amid so many adversities do fail through our own infirmities, may be restored through the Passion and intercession of Your only-begotten Son, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

The Old Testament Reading

Daniel 7:13-14

¹³“I saw in the night visions, and behold, with the clouds of heaven there came one like a son of man, and he came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before him. ¹⁴And to him was given dominion and glory and a kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him; his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom one that shall not be destroyed.

The Gradual

Ps. 57:1a, 3a

Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me, for in you my soul takes refuge.

He will send from heaven and save me;

he will put to shame him who tramples on me.

The Epistle

Ephesians 3:14-20

¹⁴For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, ¹⁵from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, ¹⁶that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, ¹⁷so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, ¹⁸may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, ¹⁹and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

²⁰Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, ²¹to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

The Lenten Verse (p. 157)

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 28:16-20

¹⁶Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. ¹⁷And when they saw him they worshiped him, but some doubted. ¹⁸And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”
